

DO YOU NEED A VOLUNTEER?

If you or someone you know has a non-emergency, non-medical need related to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic and you would like assistance from a volunteer, please email coronavirus@culvercity.org or call the City's Coronavirus Hotline at (310) 253-6890 (7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.). If you email or leave a message at the Hotline after hours, please include your name, address, phone number, email address, and your need. In an emergency, please dial 9-1-1.

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

If you would like to volunteer to help the City assist those in need (including older adults), please email coronavirus@culvercity.org or call the City's Coronavirus Hotline at (310) 253-6890 (7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.). If you email or leave a message at the Hotline after hours, please include your name, phone number, email address, and any special skills you may have (language, equipment, certifications, etc.) and preferred volunteer activity (deliver groceries to older adults, make phone calls, etc.).

NUTRITION PROGRAMS & MEAL SERVICES

Culver City Residents Age 60+

CULVER CITY SENIOR NUTRITION PROGRAM

This program currently is providing frozen, nutritionally balanced lunches for Monday through Friday to eligible participants. New eligible clients are defined as those who are Culver City residents age 60 years old and over, their spouse of any age & their disabled children that live with them. Per the directive of the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health, seniors may receive meals in one of the following ways:

- Family member, friend, neighbor, volunteer or caregiver age 59 or younger can pick-up the meals for registered Culver City Senior Nutrition Program patrons over the age of 60 at our drive-up service. Drive-up service is located in the Senior Center parking lot Mondays and Wednesdays between 10:30 am and 12:30 pm.
- For registered nutrition patrons ages 60+ who do not have anyone to pick up their meals, the City will deliver frozen meals on Mondays and Wednesdays between 11 am and 2 pm.

All meals provided are frozen, with two meals provided on Mondays and three meals provided on Wednesdays. The Culver City Senior Nutrition Program can be contacted at 310-253-6712 or via email at daniella.gutierrez@culvercity.org.

Culver City/Palms & Mar Vista Residents Age 60+

CULVER/PALMS MEALS ON WHEELS
